

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Please step back and look at the direction America is headed - do we really want to go down that path? Our service members (I was active duty/reserve Army 1977-1986) have fought for freedom, and in our own country we are letting it slip away.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
